18-F-00011	11/02/2017	Roeder, Susan	Executive Order 13160, Section 6 requires DoDEA to file reports with the Department of Justice summarizing "the number and nature of complaints filed with the agency and the disposition of such complaints." In September 2016 I filed a FOIA request for these reports and was advised by (b)(6) in DoDEA's Freedom of Information Office that "Per Request 1, there were no records found responsive to your request." On March 16, 2017 I was notified by Ms. Patricia Mulcahy from the office of the Assistance Secretary of Defense Manpower	01/19/2018	Granted in Full and Reserve Affairs: "The only EO 13160 complaint received by the Office of Investigation and Internal Review (OIRR) is the one that you submitted and will be included as part of a calendar year 2013-2015 report to the Department of Justice in the near future." I am requesting the above report referenced by Ms. Mulcahy, submitted by DoDEA to the Department of Justice shortly after March 16, 2017.

18-F-00012	11/06/2017	Hoon, N. 18-F-00018	12/14/2017	Wannebo, Frithjof	Information that identifies how the Bahrain School was established in the country of Bahrain between 1969-1972. This request is being made because the Bahrain School was so unique in the DODDS system. This school had a British "O" level program, employed 10 British teachers hired from England, and offered Arabic as a 1st language. Approximately, 10-15% of the student body were DOD dependents and the remainder of the student body consisted of students from 45 different countries. It was fully staffed with DOD teachers. It seems apparent that the decision to establish this school was made at a higher level of the US government than the Director of the DODDS."	01/19/2018	Other Reasons - No records
